Making Connections... with God, each other and the world

CONNECTION and BELONGING. We long for it. Sorrow without it. Find refuge within it. Revel in it. We're designed for it.

We are made in the image of our Triune God who lives forever in the loving community of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Our God is forever giving and receiving, loving and being loved. So what does that mean for us, women made in his image? It means that alone is incomplete, that giving and receiving are what we were made to do and that loving and being loved is in our DNA.

This year we are focusing on Making Connections with Each Other. Our concerted effort will be given to living as God made us. Not only in loving relationship with God but also in loving relationship with each other as he fills and flows through us. God's Word provides many images to help us understand this way of living. We follow Jesus as his body-- interdependent and working together, his family-- interrelated children of the Father, and his temple—interconnected, housing his presence and declaring his glory.

Join us this year as we discover and experience the wonder of Making Connections with Each Other for God's glory and our good. Connected, through Jesus, is where we belong.

Instead, we will speak the truth in love, growing in every way more and more like Christ, who is the head of his body, the church. He makes the whole body fit together perfectly. As each part does its own special work, it helps the other parts grow, so that the whole body is healthy and growing and full of love. Ephesians 4:15-16 (NLT)
